2. What we would like to do

We would like to use your personal data for the purposes of replying to comments and questions left on our contact form. We will store your name, email address and information relating to your query.

CGP keep this personal data as it is in our legitimate interest in order to be able to contact customers with regard to their views and comments about our products and to answer any questions.

3. Your rights

In order to be able to process your data in the legitimate interests of our business, we must satisfy a number of criteria and must complete a legitimate interests assessment (LIA) to help us demonstrate compliance. If you exercise your right to object to us processing your data for this purpose or if you exercise your right to complain (both of which are set out in more detail below) we may (but need not) share with you the LIA when dealing with your objection or complaint.

You have the right to ask us to rectify any data we hold about you if that data is incorrect or incomplete. Please refer to our more detailed guidance on your rights which can be accessed in our Individual Rights Notice.

You also have the right of erasure where there is no compelling reason for us to continue holding your data. Please refer to our more detailed guidance on your rights which can be accessed in our Individual Rights Notice.

You also have the right to object to our use of your data for the purposes outlined in this privacy notice. If you wish to object, please refer to our more detailed guidance on your rights which can be accessed in our Individual Rights Notice.

You also have the right to complain if you are not happy about the way we have used your personal data. Please refer to our more detailed guidance on your rights which can be accessed in our Individual Rights Notice.
